Tweet. Introduction - The purpose of these pages is to introduce the student and hobbyist to electronics projects. My hope is generate interest for those thinking about entering a high tech field, or simply to have fun. I've been a part-time adjunct professor at a local community college teaching electricity and electronics.

Introduction. I've recently introduced myself to the world of microcontrollers (I'll call it for short, if you feel cool enough), I've always found the world of digital electronics quite fascinating, being very fond of the DIY way of thinking, but I only recently decided to get my hands dirt with it and bought some PICs from Microchip and a PICKit 3 Debug Express.
